Lynette is the Financial Accountant III for Texas A&M Technology Commercialization (TTC). In her position she interprets license agreements, processes royalty distributions, invoices Licensees and System Members, reviews all accounts payable activity and is the primary point of contact for payments. She prepares fiscal related reports, monitors budget activities, tracks account expenditures and serves as the administrator for TTC's financial and technology management software.

In 2007, Lynette graduated from the Mays School of Business at Texas A&M University with a Bachelors in Business Administration with a major in Accounting and minor in Business. Her prior experience includes human resources, payroll, contracts, and payables experience at Texas A&M University. Beginning her career in internal auditing, Lynette has 10+ years of accounting and business administration experience.

Enthusiastic about her Czech heritage, she serves in many roles. She is the English Publicity Officer for the Czech Education Foundation of Texas (CEFT), serves as an Advisor for the CEFT William J. Hlavinka Scholarship with Texas A&M Univeristy College of Liberal Arts, and Secretary of the Brazos Valley Czech Heritage Society. Currently her enthusiasm has led her to take Czech language classes.

She serves as Treasurer for the Unity of the Brethren church, enjoys singing and playing piano on Sundays, and directs the church community cantata.

Lynette has also served in various roles in other community organizations in the Bryan/College Station area over the years.
